Subtract a three-digit number and ones (mentally)

1 Sarah has 120 chocolate buttons. She eats 5. How many buttons does she have left?

2 Humma thought of a number and added 8. The answer was 128. What was the number that she first thought of?

3 Isiah has collected 172 football cards. This is 6 more than Kyle. How many football cards has Kyle collected?

4 Sarah collected 147 badges. She gave 9 of them to her friend. How many badges does Sarah have left?

5 Mrs Patel has to drive 248 miles to get home. She drives 9 miles and then stops to buy a newspaper. She then drives another 7 miles and stops to buy petrol. How many more miles does she need to drive to get home?

6 There are 143 apples on the trees. The birds eat 9 and 8 more fall off the trees. How many apples are left on the trees?

Subtract a three-digit number and tens (mentally)

1 Kyle has 120 sweets. Humma has 80 sweets. How many more sweets does Kyle have than Humma?

2 In the school hall, the site supervisor puts out 122 chairs for the Christmas Nativity Play. By 6 o'clock, people are sitting on 30 chairs. How many chairs are empty?

3 Mrs Butler's garden has 138 sunflowers, but 50 die because of the bad weather. How many are left?

4 The zookeeper has 212 bananas in a big bag. The monkeys eat 90 bananas for breakfast. How many bananas are left for the monkeys' lunch?

5 Humma gets 104 Christmas cards altogether. She gets 70 from girls. How many cards are from boys?

6 In a cricket match, Isiah's team score 242 runs.
Humma's team score 90 runs.
How many more runs did Isiah's team score than Humma's team?

Subtract a three-digit number and hundreds (mentally)

1 There are 350 pupils at Sunshine Primary School. Classes 3, 4 and 5 go on a trip to the theme park, leaving 200 children at school. How many children went on the trip to the theme park?

2 Humma's team score 180 runs in a cricket match. Jessica's team score 100 runs. How many more runs do Humma's team score?

3 Sarah is reading a book. The book has 357 pages. She reads 200 pages. How many pages does she have left to read?

4 There are 180 bananas and 200 apples for the children at break. 300 pieces of fruit are eaten. How much fruit is left over?

5 There are 917 fiction books on the shelves in the library. On Monday, children take away 200 to read and, on Wednesday, children take away 400 to read. How many books are left on the shelves?