

RE - What does it mean if God is holy and loving?

To start, we'd like you to think of a celebrity who you have an interest in. It could be a Youtuber or a sports person or anyone in between who is in the public eye. What do you know about this person? How do you know these things and where did you find them out?

Now think of a friend. Someone who you have laughed with, played with and maybe even fallen out with at some point.

What do you know about this person? How do you know these things and where did you find them out?

How is your relationship different when you actually know someone? When you've been through the 'ups and downs' of laughs and fall outs.

For Christians, knowing God is like a friendship where you share ups and downs.
