

Questions

1. From which two materials could a toga be made? Tick two.

- cotton
- linen
- wool
- elastic

2. Tick all the statements which are true.

- All Roman soldiers came from the city of Rome.
- Roman children all wore the same clothes.
- Roman men wore a tunic with a cloak wrapped around it.
- Roman women wore a tunic called a lunula.

3. Find and copy two things that a Roman woman wore.

- _____
- _____

4. From which material would Roman sandals or boots be made?

5. Find and copy an adjective from the text which is used to describe the dinner parties that wealthy Romans would throw.

6. Fully explain what you would be wearing if you were in Roman times right now.

7. Give one way that a bulla and a lunula are similar and one way that they differ.

8. Compare your hobbies to those of a Roman.

Answers

- From which two materials could a toga be made? Tick two.
 - cotton
 - linen
 - wool
 - elastic
- Tick all the statements which are true.
 - All Roman soldiers came from the city of Rome.
 - Roman children all wore the same clothes.
 - Roman men wore a tunic with a cloak wrapped around it.
 - Roman women wore a tunic called a lunula.
- Find and copy two things that a Roman woman wore.
Accept any two of the following: an ankle-length tunic; a dress (stola); long tunics made from silk; jewellery; brooches; leather sandals; leather boots.
- From which material would Roman sandals or boots be made?
leather
- Find and copy an adjective from the text which is used to describe the dinner parties that wealthy Romans would throw.
lavish
- Fully explain what you would be wearing if you were in Roman times right now.
Pupils' own responses, such as: I am a girl so I would be wearing a long tunic with a wool belt. I would also be wearing a lunula to protect me from the evil eye.
- Give one way that a bulla and a lunula are similar and one way that they differ.
Pupils' own responses, such as: A bulla and a lunula are similar because they are both worn around the neck. They differ because a bulla is like a locket but a lunula is a necklace with a crescent moon-shaped charm on it.
- Compare your hobbies to those of a Roman.
Pupils' own responses, such as: My hobbies are similar to those of the Romans because they watched chariot races and I like to watch Formula 1 racing on TV with my mum.